

Do not weaken the INDIANA law for the no phone list by allowing a change that would permit banking institutions to phone our homes. That would defeat the whole purpose of the no phone list. Banks can still send offers in the mail, or if we want their services we will call them. Why should they get the special permission to interrupt our meals and sleep?

Joanne Sawyer